50X1-HUM

1. The commercial treaties for 1950 between Czechoslovakia and Hungary and Czechoslovakia and Rumania have been signed. The dollar was taken as a basis of calculation in the negotiations. Under these treaties, Kovo, national enterprise, will export goods to a value of approximately 100 million kes. to Hungary and 300 million kes. to Rumania.
2. The Czech authorities had also drawn up lists of export items for a proposed 1950 commercial treaty with Yugoslavia, but because of political considerations, plans for this treaty have not been implemented. As a result, the Czechs suggested to the Hungarian and Rumanian authorities a supplementary treaty, hoping thus to place the goods they had originally intended for Yugoslavia. Negotiations on those supplementary treaties, also on a dollar basis, are still in hand. If the treaties are agreed on the present basis of discussion, Kovo will export goods to Hungary to a value of 520 million kes. and to Rumania to a value of three milliard kes.
3. Under the 1950 treaty between Czechoslovakia and Hungary, Kovo will deliver the following goods:
